Forty-four teams, representing eighteen leagues, were busy on the pins last night, and fourteen leagues were scheduled to present their teams for competition tonight—thus showing that the bowling season is well advanced, in fact, much more so than in any previous year.

Throughout the entire army of local pin splitters, there has developed no little amount of competition for high individual honors, and, indeed, some remarkable scores have graced the early season records. All seem to be aiming at the 300-mark for games, which has not yet been reached. The nearest which any bowler has come to that charmed altitude is 145. Others of 144 and 142 have been made. E. Jasper, next, with a mark of 140 night before last, and now comes Milovich, of the Nationals, with a mark of 137. Milovich's set amounted to 375, one of the best records for three games which has been turned in to date. Schofield, of the Abattoirs in the Northeastern League, flitted around the season record when he brought down just as ducks in his game against the Federal Mill crew.

Contenders got the first two and dropped the final when they rolled the Newcomers in the District League. Contenders first game went to 534 and the second to 508 and Newcomers won their game by rolling an even 500.

Three straight is the manner in which the Nationals went after the Columbian in the National Capital League. The individual games averaged well over 100 on the Nationals' side of the score, while the Columbian allowed for many of their springs to hover in the vicinity of the 80 mark.

Massachusetts forced Evening Star to drop two games well near to the 500 mark, but the final was a close one, three in the Commercial League.

Waidlich went after the little pins for a total of 125 in his second string, when the Nationals took two out of three from the Abattoirs. Fisher was second high for the night with 118.

Manager Murphy set the pace in the Spalding (K. of C.) circuit when he rolled 125 in his first game and followed with a game of 118. Normovich, of the Washington Post, rolled twice in an hour, but each time he was dropped by the last two to Sheehy.

Johnson took all three from Cleary on Yellott behaved like a real man. McAuliffe hit the pins for the second round and his rolling was next to that of Yellott.

Johnson and Hall's rolling was very instrumental in helping the Nationals to take a pair from Strathens in the Southwest League. Grubbs is in the third string, also bolstered up the Nationals' showing.

SHADEKI TO GET CHANCE AT TURNER

Wrestlers Will Clash Again at Main Match.

Following his deft to Joe Turner from the stage of the Bjo Theater after a long bout to the local media, Turner is to be given a second chance to defeat the Washington wrestler. Turner, who is a native of the city, is a member of the class of '08.

There will be no tickets issued for this game, and the general public can walk right in and down and enjoy the game. The seating capacity is 400. The game was erected through the efforts of the Washington Post, and the game was erected through the efforts of the Washington Post, and the game was erected through the efforts of the Washington Post.

TEPIN BOWLERS TO HAVE ACTIVE YEAR

Colonial League Is Again on Alleys With Eight Teams in Its Ranks.

Choosing alleys 3, 4, 5, and 6 at the Palace, Alleys, and Wednesday and Thursday nights of each week, the Colonial Tpin League is again present in the army of bowlers which this season has invaded the local pin-spilling colony.

Eight well-balanced teams have again banded together to support the game which has suffered so much in Washington since the recent popularity of the ducks, and together with the Departmental League, is the only outfit which cleaves to the old game of tpin. Eighty-six games make up the schedule, which started on October 7.

Officers of the Colonial League are: P. W. Page, president; R. S. Jones, vice president; E. S. McKinney, secretary, and C. F. Jacobson, treasurer. A membership committee, composed of Berrill, C. F. Jacobson, and George Schaffer, has been established.

Teams following have been named for the season: R. S. Jones, G. G. Whitney, C. F. Jacobson, P. W. Page, E. S. McKinney, B. E. Brown, A. M. Lewis, and E. J. Lanster. Prizes are to be distributed at the end of the season to the team which is leading at the end of the third series, the high man on each team, and to bowlers having high team set, high team game, high individual set, and high team individual game.
